

Mission Statement

The Banjul American Embassy School is an international community providing a high quality, accredited American-Style education for students. In partnership with our community, we empower students to become enthusiastic, creative, lifelong learners who value integrity, cultural diversity and global responsibility.

Holiday Program: Special thanks to everyone who attended and participated in the holiday program. Special thanks to the Staff for their rendition of the “Twelve Days of Christmas in The Gambia”.

Gingerbread Houses: On the 18th we will be making gingerbread houses in multi-age groups. If you have small Christmas candies or sprinkles could you please send them into the office before Wednesday 16th. Also if you are willing to make frosting in white, red or green please let me know.

ICY Wonderland: The Student Council was sorry to disappoint on the 4th and it was due to the fact that Icy Wonderland did not show up on time. They are giving them a second chance for the 18th of December. The student council sent home hard copies but in case you did not receive please let any member of the student council know if:

_____ I want my child’s money refunded

_____ I want the money used to pay for an ice cream on the 18th

_____ I did not order previously but I want my child to have an ice cream on the 18th and here is my money.
Slushy D40, small ice cream D125, large ice cream D175

Flavors _____ chocolate _____ vanilla _____ strawberry

(Please circle and send in money to student council)

Holiday Bazaar: The PTO and the Staff have worked hard to present a great bazaar tomorrow from 3:00-7:00. We hope to see you all there in the holiday spirit.

Visit to the French School: Madame Joof is working hard to arrange cultural exchanges with the French School on the 10th grades 4/5 visited. More to come in the future.

Don’t know what to do over the break?: Here are some great ideas some school related, some just plain fun to do over the holiday break: <https://www.pinterest.com/educatorsspinon/after-school-activities-adventures/>

December 18, 2015: School finishes at 12:00 and resumes January 11, 2016 at 7:55.

Have a great weekend!

Sharon
